

2010 candidate questionnaire

NAME: Pam Dickerson

PARTY: Democrat

SEEKING: State Legislature, District 95

Why are you seeking your office?

I am seeking this office, so that House District 95 is well represented.

What do you expect to accomplish if elected?

I will establish an ongoing line of communication between the state capitol and the residents and businesses of House district 95. This will be accomplished by holding monthly town hall meetings for residents and round table sessions with the business community. This will ensure that all voices are heard and all concerns are addressed.

In addition to improving communication issues, I would like to present and or support legislation which will improve the quality of living for residents, and also maintain and promote the future of economic development throughout House District 95.

What distinguishes your candidacy?

I am available, accountable and responsible. My door at the Capitol will be open to all the people of the 95th House District

What are the key issues in your race?

My key issues are Education, Home Values, and Public Safety. These are the 3 major issues that affect the daily lives of every resident in this district on one level or another.

Pick one issue. Expand on how you will address it.

Education: I would like to see education partner with the business community. This can be accomplished through internship programs, summer jobs program, funding and mentoring.

Give a 100 word summary of your background.

I am originally from New Orleans, La, where as a child I took an active part in community activities and development, which also included political campaign support activities. My early involvement in politics has transcended into my adult life.

I have been a resident of Georgia for the past 27 years and have been engaged in many community activities. I am currently a member of the Rockdale Rotary Club and Leadership Rockdale. I am also involved in my church where I serve as Vice President of the Homeless Street Ministry, and many other voluntary positions.
