

NAME: Scott Hilton
PARTY: Republican
SEEKING: Georgia House of Representatives,
District 95

Why are you seeking your office?

We need more genuine public servants in office who have the leadership experience to drive positive change for our State. I have built a successful career in the private sector and spent years volunteering in our community. I have a proven conservative record having served as the 1st Vice-Chair of the Gwinnett Republican Party. As a graduate of Leadership Georgia and the Conservative Policy Leadership Institute, I am equipped to be an effective conservative voice in the State House on Day 1. It is an honor to have the endorsement of our retiring State Rep. Tom Rice.

What do you expect to accomplish if elected?

My vision for Georgia is that through conservative policies we become the #1 state in the U.S. for families and businesses. This is accomplished through improving across four important metrics business, education, transportation, and freedom. We have tremendous resources to recruit business with the Atlanta airport, Savannah ports, and agricultural land – our policy should focus on expanding business access to those resources. Better jobs will improve educational opportunities at home. Our policy should focus on innovative transportation solutions without increasing the tax burden. Finally, all Georgia should be able to enjoy the freedom of life and religious worship equally.

What distinguishes your candidacy?

I am pursuing my very first elected position and am a true outsider to politics. My candidacy is distinguished from my opponent in three specific ways. 1.) In-depth knowledge the issues – through volunteer Board service across City, County, and State levels – I can succinctly address the issues facing our state. 2.) Proven Conservative – my track record goes beyond buzz words on a flyer, I have spent years serving the Republican Party at a grass-roots level helping to advance conservative principles. 3.) Most importantly, I am running to serve others, not myself, and will never deviate from this principle.

What are the key issues in your race?

After knocking on hundreds of doors across our community, I have a clear understanding of the issues on the minds of voters. I have presented a vision for our District that will address these issues which include: 1.) Growing the Economy - I will use my experience in the private sector working with small businesses owners to push free-market reforms to encourage innovation and attract jobs to the region. 2.) Conservative Values - I will bring reforms to lower the tax burden on families and businesses and cap state spending. 3.) Immigration reform – enforce existing immigration laws in Georgia.

Pick one issue. Expand on how you will address it.

We need to focus on growing our economy to secure a brighter future for all families across our state. With a strong financial background, I know the challenges our businesses face and have the leadership experience to implement fiscally conservative solutions that will encourage entrepreneurship and lift the burden of government on business. Specifically, I will champion reforms that improve educational opportunities through school choice creating a stronger workforce, reform our tax code and lower taxes and eliminate programs that hinder job growth. I am your candidate with the experience necessary to get the job done.

Give a 100 word summary of your background.

My priorities are my faith, family, and country – these principles define my character and my attitude of service. As the parent of a child with special needs, my passion for service is driven by a desire to give a voice to everyone in our community. I was raised in Kansas, attended Georgetown University where I met my beautiful bride, Meredith. I received my MBA from Emory University and have worked as Senior Vice-President of Commercial Banking for the past 10 years. Our family is active members of Perimeter Church. I ask for your vote on May 24th.
