

NAME: Latawsha Little-Hill
PARTY: Non-Partisan
SEEKING: Judge of State Court

1. Why are you seeking the office?

I am seeking the office of State Court Judge, because I am passionate about serving people and serving justice. I believe that Gwinnett County deserves a judge whose personal and political interests are separate and distinct from her legal decisions. Finally, I believe that citizens deserve a choice!

2. What distinguishes your candidacy?

My candidacy is distinct, because I am not just focused on gaining votes, but this campaign is also focused on serving the community. We have participated with other local organizations such as Family Promise, Toys for Tots and groups to donate water to families in Flint! Public servants should be embedded in the community they serve. Therefore, part of my platform is to bridge the gap between community service and judicial service.

3. What is the proper role of a judge in interpreting the laws and Constitution?

The proper role of a judge when interpreting the law and the Constitution is to apply the law and statute(s) to the facts of a case, considering all things truthfully and neutrally.

4. What in your life experience makes you believe that you are or would be a good judge?

Serving as an Assistant Solicitor General for 5 years allowed me the opportunity to review and litigate hundreds of State Court cases. That particular experience has equipped me with the knowledge and expertise necessary to handle the issues that arise in Gwinnett County State Court.

5. What do you think are the attributes of a good judge?

I was born and raised in Walton County, Georgia. In 1996 I attended Georgia Southern University and later earned a degree in Communications. Soon thereafter, I worked for Lucent Technologies and then the City Court of Atlanta. Upon leaving the City Court, I attended Western Michigan University (Thomas M. Cooley) to earn a J.D.

6. Please give a 100 word summary of your background.

In 2010, I became a Prosecutor for the Gwinnett County Solicitor's Office. Although most of my experience is in criminal law, I also have experience in medical malpractice, divorce and estate planning. I'm happily married to Bryant Hill and we share an 8-year-old daughter.
