I have been a resident of Sugar Hill for 23 years. I have been a member of Sugar Hill Church for the past 20 years and have volunteered in every capacity at the church. I have served on the PTA board and the school council board for our school cluster. With that being said, we have had the same members on the City Council for the past 2 elections and some have been there for what seems to be a lifetime. I chose to run in this election because I believe the time is right to have a council that (100)
