1. Why are you seeking your office?

America is at a tipping point and it will take fearless and experienced leadership to get the work done.

2. What do you expect to accomplish if elected?

Bold reforms that will take the power out of Washington, sunset some, return others to the states, like education. Become energy independent again.

3. What distinguishes your candidacy?

I'm the most experienced, have a well respected reputation & known ability to build coalitions.

4. Pick any one issue. Expand on how you will address it.

It's time to dispense with the Dept. of Educ., send it back to be taken care of by states & local governments.

5. What are your ideas on curbing all the many area-wide shooting?

It's time that we teach right & wrong to our children. The approach of Kennesaw to mandate a gun/house works.

6. Please give a 100 word summary on your background.

I am a Christian wife, mother grandmother of 3 girls. An educator, business owner, election integrity expert.
